

Time Use Survey of New Mothers (TUSNM) Research Achievements to 1 August 2010

Journal articles

- Smith JP and Ellwood M, "Feeding patterns and emotional care in breastfed infants", Social Indicators Research (in press)
- Smith JP, "Time use among new mothers, the economic value of unpaid care work and gender aspects of superannuation tax concessions", Australian Journal of Labour Economics, Vol.10 No.2, June 2007, pp.99-114. (Abstract)

Reports and research papers

- Smith JP, Craig L and Ellwood M, "The Australian Time Use Survey of New Mothers - implications for policy", Australian Centre for Economic Research on Health, Research Report No.5, June 2009. (download)
- Smith JP and Craig L, "The time use of new mothers – what does it tell us about time use methodologies?", Australian Centre for Economic Research on Health, Research Report No.4, April 2009. (download)
- Smith J, Supplementary Submission to the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Health and Ageing - Inquiry into the Health Benefits of Breastfeeding, Submission No.474 – Commonwealth funding of breastfeeding research in Australia, Australian Centre for Economic Research on Health, The Australian National University, March 2007 (mimeo). (download)
- Smith J and Harvey P, Submission to the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Health and Ageing - Inquiry into the Health Benefits of Breastfeeding, Submission No.319 – Chronic disease risk, Australian Centre for Economic Research on Health and John Curtin School of Medical Research, The Australian National University, May 2007 (mimeo). (download)
- Smith J, Invited Submission to the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Health and Ageing - Inquiry into the Health Benefits of Breastfeeding, Submission No.313 – Economics of breastfeeding and the market for mothers milk, Australian Centre for Economic Research on Health, The Australian National University, March 2007 (mimeo). (download)
- Smith JP and Ellwood M, "Where does a mother's day go? Preliminary estimates from the Australian Time Use Survey of New Mothers", Australian Centre for Economic Research on Health, Research Report No.1, July 2006. (download)

Conference and seminar presentations

- Smith JP, "Breastfeeding and lactation support: what is the evidence on cost effectiveness? ", invited oral presentation to the Westmead International Update on 'Controversies in Perinatal Care', 18 June 2010, Sydney.
- Broom DH, Smith J, Craig L and Strazdins L, "Assessing effects of time pressures on health: Gender and life-course in time stresses, and their health impacts", oral presentation to the Australian Women's Health Conference, 18 May 2010, Hobart.
- Smith J and Ellwood M, "Infant feeding and emotional care time by new mothers", poster presentation and abstract, International Conference on Infant, Toddler and Preschool Mental Health, 18-20 February 2010, Auckland.

- Smith J, "Breastfeeding – every drop counts", invited oral presentation, Tasmanian Department of Health and Human Services and Glenorchy Civic Centre and Launceston Tramsheds (via video link), 16 April 2010, Hobart.
- Smith J, "Economic importance of breastfeeding", invited oral presentation to community and health workers (State-wide video linked to sites across Tasmania), Tasmanian Department of Health and Human Services, 16 April 2010, Hobart.
- Smith J, "The time use of new mothers", invited oral presentation to the New South Wales College of Lactation Consultants Annual Conference, 29-30 October 2009, Sydney.
- Smith J, "Time use of new mothers, unpaid home production, and gender aspects of superannuation tax concessions", invited oral presentation at the Commonwealth Treasury Tax Review Seminar Series, 28 May 2009, Parkes ACT.
- Smith J and Ellwood M, "Infant feeding and emotional care time by new mothers", poster presentation and abstract, Public Health Association of Australia 39th Annual Conference, 29 September 2009, Canberra. (conference site)
- Smith JP, "Future research needs: Economic perspectives", invited oral presentation at the 'Call to Action on Breastfeeding' Expert Panel Meeting, 28-29 April 2009, Washington DC.
- Smith JP and Ellwood M, "Feeding patterns and emotional care in optimally fed newborns and infants - could maternal time use explain IQ effects", oral presentation to the International Association of Time Use Researchers Annual Conference, 1-3 December 2008, Sydney. (abstract)
- Smith JP, Invited oral presentation to the Productivity Commission Inquiry into Paid Maternity Leave, 8 May 2008, Canberra. (transcript)
- Smith JP, Kent J, Ellwood M and Hartmann P, "Normal feeding patterns of exclusively breastfed infants: Evidence from time use data", poster presentation and abstract, 14th Conference of the International Society for Research in Human Milk and Lactation (ISRHML), 31 January – 5 February 2008, Perth.
- Smith JP, Baxter J and Ellwood M, "Breastfeeding and infants' time use: A comparison of time use data in the Longitudinal Study of Australian Children (LSAC) and the Time Use Survey of New Mothers (TUSNM)", invited oral presentation to the inaugural Longitudinal Study of Australian Children (LSAC) Conference, 3-4 December 2007, Melbourne. (conference site)
- Smith JP and Ellwood M, "Who pays for the health benefits of breastfeeding? An analysis of time costs", oral presentation at the Public Health Association of Australia 37th Annual Conference, 23-26 September 2007, Alice Springs.
- Smith JP, Ellwood M and Craig L, "The Australian Time Use Survey of New Mothers", oral presentation to the Australian Breastfeeding Association 'Hot Milk' Conference, 2-4 August 2007, Melbourne. (conference site)
- Smith JP, Ellwood M and Craig L, "The Australian Time Use Survey of New Mothers", oral presentation to the Australian Social Policy Research Conference, 11-13 July 2007, Sydney. (conference site)
- Smith JP and Craig L, "The time use of new mothers – what do we know and does it matter?", oral presentation to the 16th Annual Conference of the International Association for Feminist Economics (IAFFE), 29 June – 1 July 2007, Bangkok.
- Smith JP, "The economics of breastfeeding and the market for mothers' milk", invited presentation to House of Representatives Standing Committee on Health and Ageing - Inquiry into the Health Benefits of Breastfeeding, 26 March 2007, Canberra. (transcript)

Smith JP, "Where does a mother's day go? The economics of breastfeeding and the market for mothers' milk", invited oral presentation to a Health Professional Seminar on 'Milk, Health and Love' organised by the Australian Breastfeeding Association, March 2007, Launceston.

Smith JP, "Where does a mother's day go? The economics of breastfeeding and the market for mothers' milk," invited oral presentation to a Health Professional Seminar on 'Milk, Health and Love' organised by the Australian Breastfeeding Association, March 2007, Canberra.

Smith JP, "Time use among new mothers, the economic value of unpaid work and gender aspects of superannuation tax concessions", invited oral presentation to the Academy of the Social Sciences in Australia (ASSA)/Women in Economic and Social Research (WiSER) workshop on 'Communicating the Gendered Impact of Economic Policies', 12-13 December 2006, Sydney. (program)

Smith JP and Ellwood M, "Where does a mothers' day go? Preliminary estimates from the Australian Time Use Survey of New Mothers", oral presentation at the 28th Annual Conference of the International Association of Time Use Researchers (IATUR), 16-18 August 2006, Copenhagen.